THE GARLAND

A RETRO-CHIC HOLLYWOOD BOUTIQUE HOTEL

A hotel with true Hollywood roots, The Garland is centrally located and just minutes from Hollywood's most popular destinations and attractions, including Universal Studios and Universal CityWalk, Hollywood and the Hollywood Walk of Fame. Nearby blockbuster movie, television, and music studios also include Walt Disney Pictures, Universal Studios, Warner Brothers Studios, as well as major entertainment production companies: ABC, CBS and NBC Studios. The ideal urban retreat for industry executives, families, couples, local residents, and more The Garland was also recognized among the "Top 15 Hotels in Los Angeles" in Condé Nast Traveler's 2015 Readers' Choice Awards.

The Garland was originally built in 1972 by Fillmore Crank for his wife Beverly Garland, a critically acclaimed American film and television actress. Today, the property is overseen by their youngest son, James Crank, who most recently led the property through a $20 million multi-phase renovation and redesign that completed in August 2015. The Garland now boasts 257 renovated guest rooms including 14 suites, updated public spaces, and the addition of Beverly Park, a dreamy 4,000 square-foot outdoor garden, and weddings and events venue.

At the cornerstone of the renovation was the opening of The Front Yard, the property's redesigned neighborhood-dining destination. Helmed by Executive Chef Larry Greenwood, The Front Yard is nestled under towering sycamore trees and offers an approachable menu celebrating the Los Angeles food scene. Boasting an abundance of glass doors and windows that allow the interior space to seamlessly flow onto the expansive outdoor dining patio, guests can also enjoy a towering slump stone fireplace, picnic tables, umbrellas and 12-foot community table, perfect for large groups or holiday parties.
